WELCOME

Far from the crowds – and also just close enough, at 90 miles north of Manhattan and an hour south of Albany – Ulster County is an indooroutdoor, four-season playground of scenic glory and winding trails, award-winning vineyards and annual celebrations.

Tap into maple sugaring and follow in the footsteps of the Huguenots. Surrender to Shawangunk Ridge views and indulge at farm-to-table eateries. Stroll outdoor sculpture gardens and cozy up to roaring in-room fireplaces. Travel the width and breadth of our 750,000-acre playground – through diverse arts and culture, world-class accommodations and the rugged outdoors – and fall for the Ulster County that wins both awards and hearts.

This year welcomes you to the Ashokan Rail Trail ("ART"), a pet friendly, 11.5-mile outdoor paradise for hikers and bikers, runners and nature lovers, open from sunrise to sunset. Explore the Ashokan Reservoir, ascend to scenic lookouts, and enjoy every season of splendor on three trailheads and wheelchair-accessible paths.

Peruse the pages of this guide, and find yourself suspended over the world's longest pedestrian bridge (Walkway Over the Hudson) and sipping whisky-spiked flights of fancy, tracing history through Revolutionary War-era homes and sleeping in bank vaults-turned-bedrooms. Seek for yourself. For more information, please visit ulstercountyalive.com.
